

DSAGSL Community Education

The DSAGSL offers presentations for students that are in kindergarten through post-secondary across the metro-area. Our presentations can be tailored to any group's needs, ages and learning goals. Presentations last anywhere from twenty minutes to an hour, depending on the objectives of the audience. Our presenters include DSAGSL staff, trained parents, and self-advocates with Down syndrome. Our goal is to help the community understand that we are all more alike than different, and of course, to help improve the educational experiences of students with Down syndrome.

Topics covered in our presentations can include, but are not limited to:

- Down syndrome 101: What it is and how it occurs
- Common behaviors and what they might mean
- How to be a good friend
- People first language
- We are more alike than different
- Question and answer opportunity
- Just Like You Video
- Learning through story time
- Self-advocate experiences
- DSAGSL programs and services offered
- Ways to get involved with the DSAGSL

Please contact Program and Education Coordinator, Andi McCormick, to discuss scheduling a presentation. Thank you!
